

JBF Bloomington/Burnsville Valet Tagging

Too busy to tag your items, but want to earn money for your stuff?
Email bloomington@jbfsale.com to connect with a valet tagger who will tag your items for you!

How Does Valet Tagging Work?

Once you connect with a Valet Tagger, you can arrange to meet with them briefly to give them all of your clean items you would like to sell. Your Valet Tagger will prepare your items for you in time for the next JBF Bloomington/Burnsville sale. Once they have completed tagging your items, they will contact you to arrange pickup and payment. Payment can be made by cash or check, and your Valet Tagger will let you know the total before you meet.

Then, you are responsible for bringing your items to drop off at the next JBF Bloomington/Burnsville sale and returning to claim any unsold items after the sale (unless you choose to donate your items to the JBF Bloomington/Burnsville's charity partners). And finally, get paid for all your sold items! Consignors using Valet Taggers receive the same perks as other consignors, including consignor presale passes and half-price presale passes.

Visit the JBF Bloomington/Burnsville website for more information on the upcoming sale. There, you can create a consignor account, or log in to your existing account, complete the Consignor Registration form for the upcoming JBF Bloomington/Burnsville sale, choose your drop-off time, and pay the consignor fee. These steps are required to work with a Valet Tagger.

Valet Tagging Fees:

- $0.50 per item tagged
- $0.25 per item handled but not tagged due to stain/hole/broke/etc.
- $20 Supply fee for the first 100 items (hangers, pins, cardstock, ink, etc.)
- $5 supply fee for each additional 50 items

Similar items will be grouped as best they can, so you will not be charged for each individual item you plan to sell. For example, clothes can be grouped on one hanger in outfits or by similarity. Also, the price of stained/dirty clothing can add up quickly, so we recommend that you look through all your items before giving them to your Valet Tagger.

Our Valet Taggers are experienced in selling with JBF and know how to price your items to help them sell. You can trust their judgment and years of experience, but feel free to let them know what you are comfortable with.
